OBJECTION OF NANCY AND CHARLES BOOTH CONFIRMATION OF THE FIRST AMENDED JOINT PLAN OF LIQUIDATION OF CIRCUIT CITY STORES, INC. AND ITS AFFILIATED DEBTORS AND DEBTORS IN POSSESSION AND ITS OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF CREDITORS HOLDING GENERAL UNSECURED CLAIMS

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Nancy and Charles Booth (the "Booths"), by counsel, hereby object to the confirmation of the First Amended Joint Plan of Liquidation of Circuit City Stores, Inc. and its Affiliated Debtors and Debtors in Possession and its Official Committee of Creditors Holding General Unsecured Claims (the "Plan") and, in support thereof, respectfully state as follows:

1. The Booths hold general unsecured claims against Circuit City Stores, Inc. (the “Debtor”) for personal injuries. The Booths timely filed proof of claim number 7595 asserting a $200,000.00 claim against the Debtor (the “Claim”). The Claim has not been liquidated.

2. The Claim has not been disallowed and is not currently subject to any objection.
3. Under the Plan, the Claim would be treated as Class 4 “General Unsecured Claim”.
4. Booth objects to confirmation of the Plan because it does not comply with the applicable provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the “Code”). See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(1). Under the Code, the confirmation of the Plan will not discharge the Debtor. 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d)(3). A discharge, among other things, “operates as an injunction against the commencement or continuation of an action, the employment of process, or an act, to collect, recover or offset any such debt as a personal liability of the debtor.” 11 U.S.C. § 524(a)(2).

Notwithstanding the fact that the Debtor will not receive a discharge, the Plan provides:

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including, but not limited to, as set forth in Article VI.H.2, the Confirmation Order shall provide, among other things, that from and after the Effective Date all Persons who have held, hold or may hold Claims against or Interests in the Debtors are permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against the Estate(s), the Liquidating Trust, the Liquidating Trustee, or any of their property on account of any such Claims or Interests: (A) commencing or continuing, in any manner or in any place, any action or other proceeding; (B) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree or order; (C) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any lien or encumbrance; (D) asserting a setoff, right of subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any debt, liability, or obligation due to the Debtors, except as set forth in Article VI.H.2. of the Plan; and (E) commencing or continuing, in any manner or in any place, any action that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall preclude such Persons from exercising their rights pursuant to and consistent with the terms of this Plan or the Confirmation Order.

(Plan at Art. X(D)). The Plan further states:

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan or the Liquidating Trust Agreement, no payments or Distributions shall be made with respect to all or any portion of a Disputed Claim unless and until all objections to such Disputed Claim (except for objections based upon Bankruptcy Code section 502(d), which shall be governed by Article III.F. of this Plan) have been settled or withdrawn or have been determined by Final Order, and the Disputed Claim, or some portion thereof, has become an Allowed Claim; provided, however, that if the only dispute regarding a Disputed Claim is to the amount of the Disputed Claim, the Holder of a Disputed Claim shall be entitled to a Distribution on account of that portion of the Disputed Claim which the Debtors or the Liquidating Trustee do not dispute at the time and in the manner that the Liquidating Trustee makes Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims pursuant to the provisions of the Plan.

(Plan at Art. VI(I)(2)). Under the Plan, a “Disputed Claim” includes a claim for which a proof of claim was timely filed, but which is listed in the Debtors’ Schedules as unliquidated, contingent, or disputed. (Plan at Art. I(B)(1.43(b))).

The Plan does not comply with the applicable provisions of the Code because it appears to grant the Debtor a discharge event though the Debtor may not receive a discharge and the provisions of the Plan will render the Booths without a forum in which to liquidate the Claim so that they may participate in any distribution. The Claim is a “Disputed Claim” under the Plan because it was scheduled as unliquidated, contingent, and disputed. (Schedule F). The Claim must be liquidated so that the Booths may share in any distribution, and this Court cannot liquidate the Claim. 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(B). The Plan should be amended so that the Booths and others similarly situated may liquidate their claims in the forums in which the cases were pending prepetition so that they can receive their pro rata distribution.

The Plan does not comply with the provisions of the Code because it renders the Claim a “Disputed Claim” even though no objection regarding the Claim is pending before the Court. The Code provides that “A claim or interest, proof of which is filed under section 501 of this title, is deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). Because the provisions of the Plan do not comply with § 502(a)

The Plan also fails to properly treat the claims of various taxing authorities. The objection of the taxing authority Arlington ISD (Docket Number 5631) is incorporated by reference. Among other things, confirmation should be denied because the Plan does not provide for the retention of liens securing certain claims such as those held by Arlington ISD.

WHEREFORE, the Booths, by counsel, respectfully request that confirmation of the Plan be denied.

Date: November 12, 2009

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ W. Joel Charboneau
